PRESENT: Matthew Dreher
Wayne Evans, Jr
Jason Fernau
Lawrence Ryan
Dorothy Sellers
Katie Whittemore
Timothy Turbiak

STAFF PRESENT: Kenneth Slentz, Superintendent of Schools
Brian Sirianni, Clerk of the Board

CALL TO ORDER

Jason Fernau called the Board of Education Meeting to order at 7:27 p.m.

Mr. Fernau stated that next week is Teacher Appreciation Week. Mr. Fernau shared National Nurses' Week information. He extended gratitude to the teachers and nurses. He stated it was Mental Health Awareness Month.

Mr. Fernau stated the Board was sad about the Superintendent's resignation. He stated the Board wished Mr. Slentz well and understood it was an excellent professional opportunity. He stated Mr. Slentz would finish strong and was leaving strong leadership in place. He stated there is a talented instructional and caring support staff.

Mr. Fernau explained the process of hiring a new superintendent.

RECOGNITION

Mr. Slentz recognized all teachers and community members in the teaching profession currently and formerly. He encouraged everyone to reach out to a teacher and thank them. He stated this had been a most difficult year due to the pandemic closures. He discussed all the environmental changes including politics and social media. Mr. Slentz encouraged everyone to reach out to and empathize with teachers and thank them for the number of factors they deal with every day.

Mr. Slentz recognized the bus mechanics that had been fulfilling the role of bus driver as needed. He stated the official State rating on inspections had been 98.43%. He stated it was a very high bar as the safety of students was a priority. He stated the mechanics were excellent, and always willing to pitch in.

Mr. Slentz recognized the Buildings and Grounds staff. He stated although they were down positions, the team continues to do an excellent job on the conditions of the buildings and the grounds. He stated they were protecting the investment the community has made on the buildings and fields.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Holly Barker-Flynn, chair of BSEF, stated the Foundation would be voting next week on the grants for the spring cycle. She stated the grants would be presented in June.

Ms. Barker-Flynn stated she had enjoyed the free sharing of information, and asked what was being done to recruit the next superintendent. She inquired about who would be involved and how the community would be informed. She encouraged community members to become involved and offered a number of suggestions for involvement.

Jason Savaria, Rte. 67, stated public comment could be a positive platform. He discussed the follow up discussions regarding his concerns on the books available in the library. He stated he had been treated with dignity and respect. He stated there would be a committee formed to determine the appropriateness of the book and its life on the book shelf in the District library. He stated he was proud a committee would be making the decision.

Steve Galish, Town of Milton, voiced his opinion on Meet the Candidate Night. He voiced concern that 3 of 5 candidates praised the social and emotional DEI. He voiced his concerns that the program is a launch pad for pornographic material focused on grooming children. Mr. Galish stated the district was entrusted with the care of children in the role of educator. He stated it was not the district's duty to teach social beliefs in contrast to beliefs taught at home. He offered the district should be teaching critical thinking skills not sexual skills.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Slentz stated the Special Education Update would be postponed.

Mr. Slentz reminded everyone of the high risk of transmission in Saratoga County.

Mr. Slentz stated there were no current mandates from the County or State at this time. He stated the expectation was that the rates would go down as quickly as they had gone up. He stated Sharon D'Agostino and her team would continue to manage, and had everything in place. He encouraged everyone to be cautious and thoughtful.

Mr. Slentz discussed the Superintendent transition. He stated there was a significant amount of work to be done. He stated there had been a significant amount of investment in the current plans, and the focus would continue on accomplishing goals. He stated there were great administrative individuals in place that would continue to move forward with the strategic plan that will deliver for students.

Mr. Fernau shared information regarding the transition to a new Superintendent. He stated the need for the board to self-educate, and stated there would be a WSWHE BOSCES presentation at the next meeting. Mr. Fernau stated the Board would be communicating to the community.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Policy Committee will meet on May 18th at 6 p.m.

CORRESPONDENCE

Mr. Slentz shared the correspondence that he had received. He stated there was correspondence regarding the book challenge and bus safety on Rte. 9. He reminded everyone to adhere to the laws regarding buses. He asked everyone to exercise caution around buses. He stated there was correspondence related to a disciplinary concern. He stated there had been letters regarding transition, and a request form another school district for help with a Reading Program.

Mr. Fernau stated there had been correspondence to the Board regarding buses on Rte. 9. He stated residents needed to follow rules, and be concerned about students.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Stuart Williams announced the School District Budget Vote and Board of Education Vote would be on May 17th. He shared the locations and stated the Reader had gone out, and was available on the website.

Mr. Williams announced registrations were open for the Scottie Walk and the Fun Run.

Mr. Williams announced the Spring Concerts would begin next week. He announced there were changes from the printed calendar. He stated the event would either be inside or outside depending on the weather.

Mr. Williams announced NYSSMA is next weekend and stated volunteers are needed.

Mr. Fernau reminded everyone Saturday was the Touch a Truck event.
